JEFF AND BARBARA SINGERMAN

Sub-Saharan Africa

Twenty-four years ago, Jeff and Barbara Singerman moved to a village in Benin. It was there, through a basketball game, they met Marc. That encounter resulted in an enduring friendship with Marc surrendering his life to Christ and dedicating his life to missions.

When the Singermans moved to the Democratic Republic of Congo, Marc told them, "I will carry on your work here." Not only has Marc carried on the Singermans' ministries, but he also seeks out churches in the U.S. who will partner with him to reach unreached people groups in Benin.

Today, Marc ministers among an unreached people group in Benin and has partnered with U.S. churches to share the Gospel with this group resulting in four church plants and 10 locals attending Bible school.

THE COOPERATIVE PROGRAM is the financial fuel for reaching every person for Jesus Christ in every town, every city, every state, and every nation. Your support through the Cooperative Program influences the next generation of missionaries to grow and go to the ends of the earth with the Good News of Jesus.

PRAY for Benin believers, Marc, and the Singermans as they share the Gospel throughout Africa and influence new missionaries to carry on their work.
