INSIGHT

Complete your ACP so you can count for insight.
Matthew 18:12-14 reveals the shepherd only knows they have all their sheep if they count them. When one is missing, they leave the others to go get the one. Church leaders have this same responsibility to keep a count for insight.

COLLECTIVE INSIGHT

Complete and share your ACP numbers for collective insight and accountability.
Jesus gave a report to His Father who had entrusted him with a dozen men. He had kept them all except the son of destruction (John 17:9-12).

HINDSIGHT

Complete your ACP for hindsight.
When the people of Israel experienced the amazing works of God, He told them to place markers or standing stones to mark that occasion as a memorial (hindsight) to remember His provision and teach many generations. Maintain your ACP for hindsight about the history and lessons of the past.

FORSIGHT

Complete your ACP to gain foresight.
Your ACP give practical benefits. For example, a new staff members come to your church, they need to see the trend-lines of activity, hardships, and blessings your church has experienced to better lead you in the future.

CONNECTIONS YIELDS

ENCOURAGEMENT

The ACP connects you to encouragement.
Many local associations, state conventions, and national entities have ongoing ways in which they seek to encourage the local church. Devotional thoughts, exhortations, good news about kingdom work, and other encouragement approaches can assist you.

EDIFICATION

The ACP connects you to edification.
One of Satan's strategies is to make us feel isolated and alone. Resources and training for specific ministries is also available that relate to the ministry needs revealed in your ACP . . . if your leaders are connected.

PARTNERSHIP

The ACP connects you to partnerships.
Partnership opportunities in missions often start with relationships formed from your church participating in local, state, and national partnership through serving and Cooperative Program giving. The ACP can help us think through how to stay connected in missions partnerships.

OPPORTUNITIES

The ACP connects you to opportunities.
There are countless opportunities to build up leaders, keep you informed, combine the gifts of multiple churches, and network leaders for prayer and encouragement. The latest updates and opportunities are available . . . if you are connected.
